2017-18 MEDIA GUIDE

SACRAMENTO KINGS

MEDIA INFORMATION

TO THE MEDIA: Welcome to the 33nd season of Kings basketball in Sacramento and to the brand new Golden 1 Center. The Kings media relations department will do everything possible to assist in your coverage of the club during the 2017-18 NBA season. If we can ever be of assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us. In an effort to continue to provide a professional working environment, we have established the following media guidelines.

CREDENTIALS: Single-game press credentials can be reserved by accredited media members via e-mail (credentials@kings.com) until 48 hours prior to the requested game (no exceptions). Media members covering the Kings on a regular basis will be issued season credentials, but are still required to reserve seating for all games via email at credentials@kings.com to the media relations office by the above mentioned deadline. Credentials will allow working media members entry into Golden 1 Center, while also providing reserved press seating, and access to both team locker rooms and the media press room. In all cases, credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from Golden 1 Center and forfeiture of the credential. All single-game credentials may be picked-up two hours in advance of tip-off at the media check-in table, located near 7th and David J. Stern Walk at the Media entrance of Golden 1 Center.

PRESS ROOM: The Kings press room is located on the Northeast side of Golden 1 Center on the event level and will be opened two hours prior to game time. Admittance/space is limited to working media members with credentials only. The press room will remain open throughout the game and until the last working media member has finished his/her game night duties. The professional intent of the press room is to provide a meeting and working place for writers, reporters, broadcasters, and game personnel. Family members and guests will not be admitted in the press room. Any abuse of the press room and/or press privileges will result in forfeiture of your pass. Television monitors, internet service, and work space will be provided in the press room.

LOCKER ROOMS: The Kings locker room is located on the South side of the Arena on the event level. The visitor's locker room is located on the North side of the Arena on the event level. In accordance with NBA policy, both locker rooms will be open for 30 minutes, ending 45 minutes before the game (i.e. 5:45 - 6:15 p.m. for a 7:00 game). Additionally, the locker room will be open 15 minutes after the game for access to players. Only those individuals with prominently displayed credentials will gain admittance into the locker rooms. Your cooperation and courtesy is asked in maintaining a proper working atmosphere for postgame interviews.

INTERVIEWS: As stated above, pregame interviews are allowed until 45 minutes prior to game time. Postgame interviews are conducted as follows: The Kings Head Coach (in the press conference room) and visiting team coach (near opposing locker room) will address media members approximately 10 minutes after the game, while the players will be made available in their respective locker rooms. Your cooperation and professional courtesy is asked in maintaining a proper working atmosphere for postgame interviews.

TELEVISION/RADIO: Television broadcast positions are located directly behind the scorers' table on the East sideline. Radio broadcast positions are located at the top of the lower level in section 106. The Kings' media relations department will arrange statisticians for all radio and television broadcasters. If statisticians are needed, please contact the media relations department at least 72 hours prior to game time. Once arrangements are made for statisticians, the individual must be paid whether or not they are used. The media relations department will also arrange pregame, halftime, and postgame interviews according to NBA guidelines. Please make arrangements for those interviews as early as possible.

MEDIA SEATING: Reserved media seating has been designated on the scorers' table and in sections 104, 105 and 106. All seats are reserved and marked with place cards for each individual media member. Seating charts are posted at the media check-in desk and in the press room. Individuals are asked to sit in their pre-assigned seats. Electrical outlets are placed on press row for your convenience. Statistics and out of town scores will be distributed throughout the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Limited designated spaces are available on each baseline for both still photographers and television camera persons. All other credentialed photographers can shoot from our secondary position in section 107. All photographers are required to pick up photo passes upon arrival at the media check-in desk before entering Golden 1 Center. Photographers without photo passes will not be allowed on the arena floor.

MEDIA PARKING: Media members are asked to park in the West Garage on L Street between 3rd and 4th.

SERVICES: A pregame media meal with beverages will be served in the press room. Game notes will be available in the press room before the start of the game. In addition, play-by-play sheets, halftime-quarter boxscores, and postgame quotes and notes will be available in the press room following the game. Box scores and play-by-play sheets will be delivered in a prompt manner to press row at the end of each quarter. If there is anything else that we can do to assist your coverage of the Kings this NBA season, please do not hesitate to ask.

IN MEMORIAM

GORDON "SCOTTY" STIRLING

July 6, 1929 – November 11, 2015

NEW YORK, Nov. 11, 2015 – The NBA is saddened to announce the passing of Gordon "Scotty" Stirling, a former NBA vice president of operations and a longtime NBA team executive and scout. Stirling died today in Sacramento, Calif., at age 86.

"Scotty was a highly regarded league executive who dedicated more than 35 years of his life to our game," said NBA Commissioner Adam Silver. "He exuded passion for basketball and worked tirelessly in front-office roles with the Golden State Warriors, New York Knicks, Sacramento Kings, and the ABA's Oakland Oaks. Scotty also set a high standard as the NBA's vice president of operations. With his vast knowledge and keen eye for talent, he earned the respect of his peers and colleagues. We extend our deepest sympathies to Scotty's wife, Pam, and the Stirling family."

Stirling spent 27 years with the Kings from 1987-2013, including 24 seasons as scouting director. During his tenure, Sacramento drafted three-time NBA All-Star Peja Stojakovic, Hedo Turkoglu, the NBA's first Turkish-born player, and 2009-10 NBA Rookie of the Year Tyreke Evans.

Before joining the Kings, Stirling was the Knicks' general manager from 1986-87. He accepted the position with New York after serving as the NBA's vice president of basketball operations for three seasons and as the assistant to the Warriors' president from 1976-82. Stirling was also general manager of the 1968-69 ABA champion Oaks.

Stirling transitioned to the NBA after a stint as general manager of professional football's Oakland Raiders, a team he had covered for the Oakland Tribune, and with whom he won the 1967 AFL title. His career in media also included a pioneering tenure as a sports-talk radio host in the Bay Area, and he is widely credited with helping to develop the concept of fantasy football.

A U.S. Army veteran, Stirling earned a B.S. from the University of San Francisco and an M.A. in Sports Management from Adelphi University. In 2012, he was inducted into the El Cerrito High School Hall of Fame for his contributions to Bay Area sports.

Stirling is survived by his wife, Pam; three sons, Gordon, Donald, a member of the Utah Jazz organization, and Kevin; a sister, Helen Boak, and a brother, Archie Stirling; six grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a brother, John T. Stirling.

KINGS EXECUTIVES

MATINA KOLOKOTRONIS

Chief Operating Officer

Entering her 21st season with the NBA, Matina Kolokotronis serves as the Chief Operating Officer (COO) of the Sacramento Kings. Bringing decades of experience in sports and government law, community affairs and contract negotiations, Kolokotronis' leadership has been integral to the development of the award winning Golden 1 Center as well as its adjacent, $500 million mixed-use development project, Downtown Commons. Golden 1 Center is recognized as the greenest and most technologically-advanced arena in the world and is the first professional sports venue in the world to achieve LEED Platinum certification. Together, Golden 1 Center and Downtown Commons represent a $1 billion investment in downtown Sacramento – a great source of pride for the community and driver of significant economic growth in the region.

Prior to her appointment as COO, Kolokotronis was the President of Business Operations. Kolokotronis is the only female in the NBA to hold the titles of both COO and President of Business Operations. Before being named President of Business Operations, Kolokotronis served as legal consultant for the Kings business and basketball operations teams, negotiating player and staff contracts. During that time, Kolokotronis was an Adjunct Professor of Law at McGeorge Law School, University of the Pacific where she taught Sports Law. Prior to that she served for six years as director of the Sacramento Kings Foundation, overseeing strategic development and fundraising activities. Before joining the Kings, Kolokotronis was an associate with Miller, Owen and Trost and practiced contract and sports law where her clients included the Kings and various NBA players.

Her leadership extends beyond the Kings organization and into the community where she is a dedicated mentor and advocate for numerous women's advancement groups and non-profits. She is also very active in the Greek church. In 2015, Governor Brown appointed Kolokotronis to the California Citizens Compensation Commission.

Kolokotronis is a graduate of Loyola University and received her law degree from McGeorge Law School, University of the Pacific. Matina and her husband, Sotiris, are long-time Sacramento residents, and their three children – Constantine, Marisa and Nicholas – proudly wear purple.

KINGS EXECUTIVES

VLADE DIVAC
General Manager

Vlade Divac enters his fourth season at the Kings, his third as General Manager. He joined the Kings on March 3, 2015 as the team's vice president of basketball and franchise operations and was named General Manager on August 31, 2015.

One of the most respected and revered individuals in franchise history, Divac returns to Sacramento having spent more than a decade serving the NBA and international sporting communities with the same distinction that solidified his reputation as a consummate teammate, player, humanitarian and overall difference-maker on and off the basketball court.

Divac has served in a variety of administrative and leadership roles since retiring from professional basketball in 2007. In addition to his philanthropic efforts focused on helping children in his native country and other reaches of the globe, he was named President of the Serbian Olympic Committee in 2009. Under his guidance, Serbian athletes have enjoyed greater success and the country is experiencing a resurgence on the international stage.

In 16 NBA campaigns with Los Angeles, Charlotte and Sacramento, Divac averaged 11.8 points, 8.2 rebounds, 3.1 assists, 1.1 steals, and 1.4 blocks per game over 1,134 contests. He is only one of four players in league annals to accrue at least 13,000 points, 9,000 rebounds, 3,000 assists, 1,200 steals and 1,600 blocked shots, joining Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Hakeem Olajuwon and Kevin Garnett with that distinction. His six seasons in a Kings uniform marked the most successful period in team history, including a league-high 61 wins in 2001-02 and a trip to the Western Conference Finals. His name adorns the franchise record book in several key categories, ranking fourth all-time during the Sacramento-era in rebounds (3,538) and blocked shots (523), ninth in points scored (5,176), eighth with 454 games played, free throws made (1,209) and in steals (453). Divac's jersey was retired by the Kings in 2009.

BRANDON D. WILLIAMS

DAVE JOERGER
Head Coach

Dave Joerger begins his second season as the Sacramento Kings head coach after being named on May 9, 2016, becoming the franchise's 28th head coach and the 17th since the team moved to Sacramento.

Joerger joins the Kings after spending nine years (2007-16) with the Memphis Grizzlies, the last three as their head coach. After being named the Grizzlies' 12th head coach on June 27, 2013, Joerger accrued a 147-99 regular season mark (.598) and guided the franchise to postseason berths in each of his seasons at the helm. Following three straight 50-win campaigns for the first time in club history (2012-13 thru 2014-15), two under Joerger, Memphis again qualified for the playoffs despite injuries which forced the team to dress a league-record 28 players in 2015-16. Until then, no NBA team had reached the playoffs utilizing 24 or more athletes on its roster in a single season.

Joerger posted the best record among the NBA's 10 first-year head coaches in 2013-14 while tying Hubie Brown (2003-04) for the most wins in Grizzlies franchise history by a head coach in his first full campaign. Joerger achieved his 100th career head coaching win on March 23, 2014 and was the fastest among active NBA coaches (153 games coached) to reach 100 career victories as of the start of the 2015-16 season (and is now only behind Golden State's Steve Kerr).

Since his initial hire prior to the 2007-08 season, Joerger has shaped the Grizzlies' identity into an NBA-best defensive unit that led the league in points allowed (89.3 ppg) in the 2012-13 season and paced the Western Conference for three consecutive seasons from 2011-14. With Joerger as the lead assistant from 2011-13, Memphis set franchise records for regular season winning percentage (2012-13, .683) and recorded second-place finishes in the Southwest Division, both club bests. In the postseason, Memphis upset the top-seeded San Antonio Spurs in the opening round of the 2011 NBA Playoffs, the team's first playoff series victory, and advanced to the 2013 Western Conference Finals two years later.

Joerger earned Western Conference Coach of the Month honors for January 2013 as the Grizzlies went a league-best 12-3 during the month while leading the league in fewest points allowed (91.3 ppg). Memphis again won 12 games in March, marking the first time in franchise history that the team had two 12-win calendar months during the same season. Joerger was again named Western Conference Coach of the Month in April 2013 after Memphis went 6-2 during the month and finished the season on a five-game winning streak while clinching a playoff berth. He earned his third monthly honor in October/November 2014 after leading the Grizzlies to an NBA-best 15-2 record to open the 2014-15 season.

Prior to entering the NBA ranks, Joerger won accolades as one of the most successful minor league coaches in history, piloting five teams to championships in three different basketball leagues in seven seasons from 2000-07. Demonstrating strong player development skills, Joerger sent 18 of his players to the NBA during his time in the minor leagues. By the time he was hired by the Grizzlies as an assistant coach in 2007, Joerger had collected titles in the NBA Development League, CBA (Continental Basketball Association) and IBL (International Basketball League).

Before earning his first NBA assistant coaching job with the Grizzlies, Joerger gained fame as head coach of the 2007 NBA Development League Champion Dakota Wizards. Dakota's 2007 championship marked Joerger's fifth as a head coach after winning one International Basketball Association (IBA) title and three more in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA). Joerger owns two CBA Coach of the Year Awards (2002, 2004) and a head coaching record of 232-117 (.665) in the minor leagues.

After finishing his playing career at Moorhead State, Joerger got his start as Dakota's general manager when the franchise was a member of the IBA. He received his first opportunity on the sidelines as an assistant coach during the 1997-98 season. After three years as an assistant, Joerger succeeded Duane Ticknor (now a Kings assistant coach) as head coach and led the Wizards to the 2001 IBA Championship. The Wizards moved to the CBA the following season, where Joerger led them to CBA titles in 2002 and 2004.

During the summer of 2004, Joerger became head coach of the Sioux Falls Skyforce and proceeded to win the 2005 CBA Championship, his fourth title in five years, giving him more minor league championships than other notable minor-league-turned-NBA head coaches Phil Jackson, George Karl, Flip Saunders and Eric Musselman combined. Joerger returned to Dakota, now in the D-League, in 2006 and guided the Wizards to a league-best 33- 17 record (.660) before winning his second championship with the organization.

Joerger and his wife, Kara, are the parents of two daughters, Alli and Kiana.

FRANCHISE HISTORY

SACRAMENTO KINGS MEDIA GUIDE

HISTORY OF OWNERSHIP

The Sacramento Kings begin their fourth season under a group led by Owner Vivek Ranadivé. The group succeeds the Maloof family, who sold the franchise in Spring 2013.

The latest chapter in the franchise's ownership history began to take shape in April 2013 when the NBA's Relocation Committee unanimously recommended that the league's Board of Governors deny the application of the team to relocate to Seattle, Washington. The passion, will and vision that Ranadive's group expressed for the future of the Kings in Sacramento led the league's Board of Governors to unanimously approve the sale of the team on May 28, 2013.

The Maloof family had owned the team for 14 seasons after taking control of the Kings and ARCO Arena on July 1, 1999. The Maloofs succeeded Jim Thomas, who had owned the franchise since April 6, 1992.

The Maloof family's interest in purchasing the Kings, Monarchs (WNBA) and ARCO Arena originated in 1997 when they contacted Thomas regarding the availability of the teams and arena. On January 14, 1998, the Maloofs completed the purchase of a minority limited partnership in the organization's franchises and ARCO Arena. On January 15, 1999, the Maloofs subsequently purchased controlling interest, effective July 1, 1999. The NBA Board of Governors unanimously approved the ownership transfer on May 7, 1999, in New York, at which time the Board of Governors appointed Joe Maloof to the Board.

LES HARRISON

The Kings franchise made its NBA debut in 1948 as the Rochester Royals under the ownership of Les Harrison. Harrison also served as the club's head coach for the first seven seasons, and in 1951 he guided the Royals to the first and only NBA World Championship title in franchise history. The team was moved to Cincinnati in 1957, where one year later it became a public corporation. In 1966, brothers Max and Jeremy Jacobs purchased the club and maintained ownership through the team's move to Kansas City in 1972-73.

A group of 10 Kansas City-based businessmen purchased the club in 1973 for an excess of $5 million. The same group held proprietorship through May of 1982 when ownership was restructured so that only three partners remained, Leon Karosen, H. Paul Rosenberg, and Robert J. Margolin. Three months later, three New York-based businessmen joined the Kansas City ownership group.

On June 8, 1983, the Kings were sold to a local business group that is responsible for bringing NBA basketball to the Capitol City, as Joseph Benvenuti, Frank and Gregg Lukenbill, Bob A. Cook, Frank McCormick, and Stephen H. Cippa purchased the Kansas City Kings for approximately $10.5 million. In January of 1985, the group petitioned the NBA Board of Governors for permission to move the franchise to Sacramento. Nine months later, the Kings' Sacramento-era began as the club played its first-ever contest before a sold out crowd at the temporary ARCO Arena site.

LES HARRISON — BASKETBALL PIONEER

The Sacramento Kings organization would like to pay tribute to the late Les Harrison, who passed away in December of 1997, at the age of 93. As owner, general manager, and coach, Harrison was the driving force behind the Rochester Royals in the early days of the National Basketball League (NBL). In three seasons in the NBL, Harrison led the Royals to a 99-43 record, three NBL finals, and league titles in 1946 and 1947. With the signing of Dolly King in 1946, Harrison played a role in breaking the minority barrier in professional basketball. Following the 1948-49 season, in which the Royals played in the Basketball Association of America (BAA), Harrison led the effort to merge the NBL and BAA into the current National Basketball Association (NBA). Under Harrison's direction, the Royals won the franchise's lone NBA title in 1951, defeating the New York Knickerbockers 4-3 in the Finals. Harrison posted a .620 winning percentage (295-181) in seven NBA seasons, which ranks14th all-time in the league entering this season for coaches with 100+ games. In a crowning achievement to his career, Harrison was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1979.

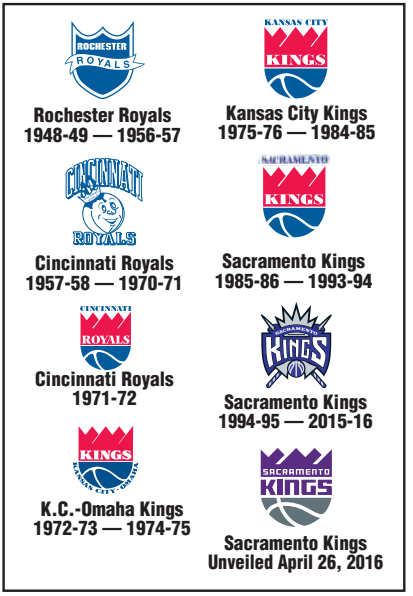
NICKNAME & LOGO TRANSITION

The Rochester National Basketball League franchise was originally nicknamed the Royals in 1946 after 15-year-old Richard Paeth's entry beat out 500 other suggestions in a name the team contest. For his winning entry, Paeth, a native of Rochester, received a $100 Victory Bond from team president/manager Les Harrison. When the franchise moved to Cincinnati before the 1957-58 campaign, the ownership decided to maintain the Royals moniker. However, when the franchise moved to Kansas City prior to the 1972-73 season, it needed a new nickname because the name Royals was already being used by the city's Major League Baseball team. Wanting to keep the "Royal" theme, the club decided on the nickname of Kings.

On May 22, 1994, the Sacramento Kings unveiled a new primary logo, home and road uniforms, and team colors. The changes marked the first major alteration from the crown and ball logo which had been the franchise's trademark since the club resided in Cincinnati.

On April 26, 2016, the Kings shared a new brand identity with fans during a special preview of Golden 1 Center, the team's future downtown home currently under construction.

"When the Kings moved to Sacramento in 1985, the city was transformed. Today, we aim to do it again," said Owner and Chairman Vivek Ranadivé. "This brand kicks off a new era for our franchise as we move into the most technologically-advanced, most environmentally-friendly arena in the world. As Sacramento becomes the next great American city, this identity honors our heritage while moving us forward."



A chronological look at the evolution of the Kings' primary logo over the franchise's 68-season history.

The new primary emblem is inspired by the Kings classic logo. It is reimagined to reflect the civic and franchise pride that has lasted and grown for a generation. Now, with a clean, modern look – a reshaped crown, refined basketball and new typeface that puts Sacramento front and center – the new identity draws from the team's ambitious beginnings and reminds our region and the world that Sacramento is undergoing a transformation.

Each of the team's new insignia are designed to connect to the elements that define the Sacramento Kings: Our City. Our Pride. Our Foundation.

The secondary logo featuring the lion, pays tribute to the unmatched pride and loyalty of the NBA's best fans. The "Sac" badge is dedicated to the bold and unwavering devotion the Kings organization has for its city. A new crown logo reflects the rich tradition of the team dating back to its origins, reminding the fanbase and the community of Sacramento that, "we are all Kings." The heralding lion crest represents leadership and strength and will be used as the Kings work to make basketball the premier global sport of the 21st century.

Team Notes

- On November 8, 1988, the long awaited debut of ARCO Arena II became a reality when the Kings hosted the Seattle SuperSonics, losing 97-75 before a sold-out crowd of 16,517. NBA Commissioner David Stern participated in the dedication cermony.
- Midway through the fourth quarter of the Kings-Trail Blazers contest on December 27, 1988, Head Coach Jerry Reynolds collapsed on the sidelines. He lay unconscious for several minutes before doctors revived him and immediately transported him to Sutter Memorial Hospital for further observation. Doctors dismissed cardiac problems, diagnosing the cause of the fainting and dizziness due to a sudden postural change. Reynolds missed the following night's game in Utah, but returned to practice two days later.
- On February 20, 1989, the Kings acquired Indiana forward Wayman Tisdale and the Pacers' 1990 second-round draft choice in exchange for forward LaSalle Thompson and guard Randy Wittman.
- On May 21, 1989, Sacramento won the NBA Lottery's grand prize by receiving the first overall pick in the 1989 NBA Draft. Approximately one month later (June 27), the Kings selected 6-10 Louisville center Pervis Ellison with the No. 1 choice.

- On August 14, 1989, guard Ricky Berry was found dead in his home from a self-inflicted gunshot wound, just months after the conclusion of a rookie campaign in which he averaged 11.0 ppg, 3.1 rpg, and 1.3 apg.
- Managing General Partner Gregg Lukenbill announced a reorganization of the club's management and basketball staff on December 19, 1990. Executive Vice President of Business Operations Rick Benner was named president of the Kings and ARCO Arena. Head Coach Jerry Reynolds assumed the position of director of player personnel and would eventually relinquish his coaching position. Bill Russell was released from his position as vice president of basketball operations.
- On January 4, 1990, NBA veteran Dick Motta, the third-winningest head coach in NBA history, replaced Reynolds as the Kings head coach. Reynolds compiled a 56-114 (.330) record in three stints as Kings head coach.
- Kings guard Kenny Smith finished second to Atlanta's Dominique Wilkins in the Gatorade Slam Dunk contest during NBA All-Star Weekend in Miami. Smith's appearance marked only the second time since the club moved to Sacramento in 1985 a player represented the Kings in the All-Star festivities. (Terry Tyler in '86 slam dunk contest was the first).
- The Kings made NBA history at the 1990 NBA Draft (June 27, 1990), becoming the first team to select four first-round draft choices—LaSalle forward Lionel Simmons (#7 overall), Texas guard Travis Mays (#14 overall), Temple center Duane Causwell (#18 overall) and St. Louis forward Anthony Bonner (#23 overall).

- Kings posted a 28-54 record in 1993-94, a three-game improvement over the 1992-93 campaign (25-57).
- Sacramento finished ahead of the Los Angeles Clippers (27-55) in the Pacific Division standings, marking the first time since 1988-89 that the Kings did not finish at the bottom of their division.
- Guard Mitch Richmond became the first Kings player since Otis Birdsong in 1980-81 to earn All-NBA honors when he was voted to the second team. Richmond ranked seventh in the NBA in scoring (23.4 ppg) in the regular season, while also avearging 3.7 rpg, 4.0 apg, and 1.32 spg.
- Richmond also became the first Kings player since Nate Archibald in 1975 and the eighth in franchise history to start in an NBA All-Star Game, tallying 10 points, two rebounds, and three assists in 24 minutes for the West squad in the 44th Annual affair in Minneapolis, MN.
- Kings were stricken by the injury bug throughout the season, losing 226 player games to injury or illness, the third highest total in the NBA in 1993-94 and the second most in the Sacramento-era. The rash of injuries forced Head Coach Garry St. Jean to utilize 20 different starting combinations over the course of the season.

- Kings registered a 39-43 regular-season record, marking the franchise's most victories in a season since 1982-83 (45-37). Sacramento finished fifth in the Pacific Division, and missed advancing to the NBA Playoffs by just one game after falling 102-89 at Denver (4/23/95) on the final day of the regular season in a winner-take-all battle for the eighth and final Western Conference Playoff berth.

- Guard Mitch Richmond earned Second-Team All-NBA honors after averaging 22.8 ppg, 4.4 rpg, 3.8 apg, and 1.11 spg. Richmond's 22.8 ppg led all guards in scoring and ranked eighth in the NBA.

- Richmond was named MVP of the 45th Annual All-Star Game in Phoenix, scoring a game-high 23 points (10-13 FG, 3-3 3pt, 0-0 FT) with four rebounds and two assists in only 22 minutes off the bench to lead the Western Conference to a 139-112 victory over the East. The 10-for-13 (.769) shooting performance is the third best in All-Star history.

- Forward Brian Grant was named to the NBA's First-Team All-Rookie squad, averaging 13.2 ppg (.511 FG%), 7.5 rpg, and 1.45 bpg. Grant earned Schick Rookie of the Month honors for January after averaging 15.8 ppg (.511 FG%), 9.7 rpg, and 2.13 bpg in helping lead the Kings to a 9-6 mark.

- Paul Westphal, in his first season as head coach of the Kings, guided Sacramento to a fifth-place finish in the Pacific Division, compiling a 25-57 regular season record.
- Rookie Tyreke Evans, selected fourth overall in the 2009 NBA Draft, averaged a team-high 20.1 ppg, 5.3 rpg, a team-leading 5.8 apg, and 1.51 spg and became the first Kings player in the Sacramento era to win the NBA Rookie of the Year award.
- Sacramento ranked 10th in the NBA in rebounding (42.6 rpg), and third in offensive rebounding (11.9 orpg).
- The Kings rallied from a third-quarter 35-point deficit to defeat the Bulls, 102-98, at Chicago on December 21, 2009. It was the largest deficit to come back from and win since the Jazz overcame a 36-point deficit to beat the Nuggets on Nov. 27, 1996.

Team Notes

- Kings finished fourth in the Pacific Division, compiling a 24-58 regular season record. For the first time in the Sacramento era and since the 1968-69 season the Kings finished with more wins on the road (13) than at home (11).
- Sacramento was ranked second in offensive rebounds per game (13.1 rpg) and fourth in rebounding overall (43.9 rpg).
- Rookie forward-center DeMarcus Cousins set a new Sacramento-era rookie record for most rebounds in a season (699), surpassing Lionel Simmons' mark of 697, set in 1990-91.
- Marcus Thornton, acquired along with cash considerations from New Orleans in exchange for forward Carl Landry on February 23, averaged 21.3 points (.450 FG%, .361 3pt%, .805 FT%), 4.7 rebounds, 3.4 assists, and 1.67 steals per game in 27 games with the Kings. Thornton scored a career-high 42 points in a March 14th win over the Warriors.

- Kings finished fourth in the Pacific Division, compiling a 22-44 regular season record. Keith Smart was named head coach on January 5, 2012, replacing Paul Westphal after the first seven games of the lockout-shortened season. Sacramento posted a 16-17 home record, surpassing the 11-win home total in 2010-11.

- The Kings ranked second in the NBA in offensive rebounding (13.4 orpg), fifth in steals (8.50 spg), sixth in scoring (98.8 ppg), and 10th in rebounding (42.9 rpg). It marked the third straight season in which the Kings finished in the top 3 in offensive rebounding and top 10 in rebounding.

- Rookie Isaiah Thomas was named to the 2011-12 NBA All-Rookie Second Team. Thomas was named back-to-back Western Conference Rookie of the Month in February and March, becoming only the fourth Kings rookie in the Sacramento era to win the award.

- Marcus Thornton led the Kings in scoring (18.7 ppg), three-pointers made (107) and attempted (310), and free throw percentage (.865).

- DeMarcus Cousins ranked first in the NBA in offensive rebounding (4.1 orpg and 265 total offensive rebounds) and charges taken (47). His 11.0 rpg was tied with Kris Humphries for fourth in the NBA. Cousins recorded a team-high 36 double-doubles, sixth highest in the league.

Team Notes

- Kings Head Coach George Karl guided the Kings to a 33-49 record (18-23 home, 15-26 road) in their 31st season in Sacramento. The 33 wins were the most since the 2007-08 team won 38.
- The Kings were ranked third in scoring (106.6 ppg), fourth in assists (24.5 apg) and fifth in steals (8.94 spg).
- With the Golden 1 Center set to open prior to the 2016-17 season, the Kings played their final game in Sleep Train Arena, defeating the Oklahoma City Thunder, 114-112, on April 9, 2016.
- The 2015-16 Kings set new Sacramento-era records in three-point field goals made (660) and attempted (1,839) and two-point field goal percentage (.500).
- The Kings ended a 14-game losing streak to the Thunder in Oklahoma City with a 116-104 win on Jan. 4, 2016, and a 22-game losing streak to the Mavericks in Dallas thanks to a 104-101 decision on March 3, 2016.
- An All-Star Game appearance and an All-NBA Second Team nod for the second straight season, DeMarcus Cousins posted career-high averages in scoring (26.9 ppg), steals (1.55 spg) and minutes (34.6 mpg) while also averaging 11.5 rpg, 3.3 apg, 1.4 bpg. Among NBA leaders, Cousins ranked fourth in scoring, fifth in rebounding, sixth in double-doubles (47) and led all players in personal fouls drawn (8.9). Cousins recorded a career-high 56 points to set a new Sleep Train Arena record and a Sacramento-era record for most points in a game in a double-overtime loss to the Hornets on Jan. 25, 2016.

NATE ARCHIBALD

Nate "Tiny" Archibald played six of his 13 NBA seasons with the Kings franchise. Selected by the Cincinnati Royals in the second round of the 1970 NBA Draft, Archibald starred in six NBA All-Star Games. The 6-1, 180 guard posted his best season in 1972-73, averaging a career-best 34.0 ppg and 11.4 apg, becoming the only player in NBA history to lead the league in both scoring and assists. Archibald was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1991.

MITCH RICHMOND

Mitch Richmond became the first player in Sacramento-era history to have his jersey retired (December 5, 2003). Richmond ranks among the top five in franchise history in points, field goals made and attempted, free throws made and attempted, free throw percentage, steals, three-pointers made and attempted, and three-point field goal percentage. He became the first Sacramento King to be named to the All-Star Game, and earned the All-Star MVP award in 1995 after tallying 23 points in 22 minutes off the bench. Also while with Sacramento, Richmond represented the United States in the 1996 Olympics, winning a gold medal. On August 8, 2014, Richmond was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

CHRIS WEBBER

One of the most talented forwards to ever don a Kings jersey, Chris Webber helped the Kings reach the NBA Playoffs in six straight seasons (1998-99 - 2003-04), earn two back-to-back Pacific Division titles (2001-02, 2002-03) and record a franchise record 61 regular season wins in 2001-02. Acquired from Washington in exchange for Mitch Richmond and Otis Thorpe on May 14, 1998, Webber recorded 51 points and 26 rebounds on January 5, 2001 versus Indiana, both Sacramento-era single-game records. As a King, Webber was a four-time NBA All-Star and a five-time All-NBA Team selection. He averaged 23.5 ppg, 10.6 rpg, 4.8 apg, 1.51 spg and 1.47 bpg in 377 games with Sacramento. His jersey was lifted to the rafters on February 6, 2009 (Kings vs. Utah).

6TH MAN (THE FANS)

The No. 6 jersey was retired to acknowledge the support of the Kings fans. The Kings have two of the highest consecutive sellout streaks in NBA history. A sellout streak of 497 games still stands as the fourth-longest sellout streak in NBA history. The milestone streak began on opening night in 1985, the first season the Kings played in Sacramento, and ended after the second game of the 1997-98 season. From November 26, 1999, to April 18, 2007, the Kings sold out 354 straight home contests, ranking eighth on the NBA's all-time sellout list. The team sold out every home game in the Golden 1 Center's opening season.

BOBBY DAVIES

Bobby Davies, known as the Harrisburg Houdini, played all 10 of his NBA seasons with the Rochester Royals (1945-46 - 1954-55). His two free throws in the final 40 seconds of regulation broke a 75-75 tie in the seventh and deciding game of the 1951 NBA Finals against New York, helping give the franchise its first and only NBA Championship. The four-time All-Star averaged 16.2 ppg, 2.9 rpg, and 6.0 apg in his best statisical season in 1951-52. A 6-1, 175 guard, Davies was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1969.

MAURICE STOKES

The 6-7, 240 forward played all three of his seasons for the franchise, playing his first two seasons with Rochester (1955-56 - 1956-57) and his last with Cincinnati (1957-58). In his first season, Stokes was named NBA Rookie of the Year and was named to the All-NBA Second Team after posting team-highs of 16.8 ppg (11th in NBA), 16.3 rpg (2nd in NBA), and 4.9 apg (9th in NBA). An All-Star in all three seasons, Stokes averaged 16.4 ppg, 17.3 rpg, and 5.3 apg in 202 career games. His brillant career was cut short when he was diagnosed with post-traumatic encephalopathy (brain injury damaging motor-control center) after a fall suffered three days earlier in a game against the Minneapolis Lakers (3/12/58).

OSCAR ROBERTSON

Known as the Big O, Oscar Robertson displayed an uncanny all-around game, finishing his 12-year NBA career with 25.7 ppg, 7.5 rpg, and 9.5 apg in 1,040 career games. He played 10 of his 14 NBA seasons with the Cincinnati Royals. His best season came in 1961-62 when the 6-5, 210 guard averaged a triple double - 30.8 ppg, 12.5 rpg, 11.4 apg. He averaged 30 or more points in six of his first seven seasons in the league and 10 or more assists in five of his first seven seasons. Robertson, who led the league in assists in six seasons, ranks among the NBA's all-time leaders in scoring (10th), assists (6th), and points (12th). The 12-time All-Star was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1979.

PEJA STOJAKOVIC

Drafted by the Kings in the first round (14th overall) of the 1996 NBA Draft, Peja Stojakovic went on to play 13 NBA seasons, eight with Sacramento, and finished his career as a three-time NBA All-Star, NBA Champion (2011 Dallas Mavericks) and the Kings' franchise leader in three-pointers made (1,070) and attempted (2,687) and free throw percentage (.893). He ranks in the top 10 in NBA history in several categories, including fifth in career free throw percentage (.895), 16th in three-pointers made (1,760), and tied for seventh with Steve Nash in playoff free throw percentage (.900). His #16 jersey was retired on December 16, 2014, during halftime of the Kings-Thunder game.

VLADE DIVAC

Known for his craftiness on the court and his generosity off of it, Vlade Divac signed with the Kings as a free agent on January 22, 1999. Divac helped the Kings reach the NBA Playoffs in six straight seasons (1998-99 - 2003-04) while capturing two back-to-back Pacific Division titles (2001-02, 2002-03) and a franchise record 61 regular season wins in 2001-02. An All-Star in 2001, Divac played six of his 16 NBA seasons with the Kings, averaging 13.2 ppg, 7.8 rpg, 3.7 apg and 1.15 bpg in 454 games with Sacramento. He joined Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Hakeem Olajuwon as the only three players in NBA history to amass 13,000 points, 9,000 rebounds and 1,500 blocks in a career. His jersey was retired on March 31, 2009 (Kings vs. New Orleans).

JACK TWYMAN

A 6-6 guard from Cincinnati, Jack Twyman played all 11 of his NBA seasons with the Kings franchise, two coming in Rochester (1955-56 and 1956-57) and the other nine seasons (1957-58 - 1965-66) in his hometown. Twyman averaged 14 or more points in his first 10 seasons and averaged 31.2 ppg, 8.9 rpg, and 3.5 apg during the 1959-60 regular season. In 1958-59, Twyman ranked second in the league in scoring, posting a 25.8 scoring average. Twyman twice scored 50 or more points in his career, including a 59-point performance versus Minneapolis (1/15/60), which still remains as the Kings' franchise single-game scoring record. Among franchise career leaders, Twyman ranks second in points (15,840), field goals made (6,237) and attempted (13,873), and free throws made (3,366) and attempted (4,325). The Hall of Fame inducted the six-time All-Star guard in 1982.

SAM LACEY

Sam Lacey, a 6-10, 235 pound forward out of New Mexico State, played 11 of his 13 NBA seasons with the Kings franchise. The first selection of the Royals in the 1970 NBA Draft, Lacey averaged a double-double in points and rebounds in his first six seasons in the league. Lacey stands as the franchise leader in games played (888) and rebounds (9,353). He ranks in second in minutes played (29,991), fifth in points (9,895) and fourth in field goals made (4,101) and field goals attempted (9,280).

A GAME 7 THRILLER FOR THE NBA TITLE

The Sacramento Kings' lone franchise NBA World Championship came in 1951 when the then-Rochester Royals defeated the New York Knickerbockers in seven games. Following is the game story and box score of the Royals' thrilling 79-75 Game 7 victory over the Knickerbockers as it appeared in the New York Times.

By Leonard Koppett

ROCHESTER, N.Y., April 21 — Proving once again that free throws are more important than field goals, the Rochester Royals won the National Basketball Association championship before 4,200 spectators at the arena tonight by beating the New York Knickerbockers, 79 to 75, in the seventh game of the final play-off series. The Royals had won the first three games, the Knicks the next three.

Just how completely dependent Rochester's victory was on its foul line steadiness is clear in the chronology and statistics of the game. Bob Davies broke a 75-all tie with forty-four seconds to play when he sank two free throws after being fouled by Dick McGuire while driving to the basket; and in all, the Royals made twenty-nine out of thirty-seven free-throw attempts while New York sank only seventeen out of twenty-five. The Knicks had four more baskets, twenty-nine to twenty-five.

The fouls brought about New York's defeat in another way, too. Both its centers, Nat Clifton and Connie Simmons, fouled out in the last quarter, when the Knicks took the lead for the first time after trailing by as much as fourteen points in the first half. Meanwhile Arnie Risen, Rochester's center who took top-scoring honors with 24 points and scored the deciding basket before Davies made his free throws, committed his fourth foul twenty-two minutes before the game ended and played unpenalized the rest of the way.

Clifton, Simmons Foul Out

With Clifton and Simmons out, the Knicks were unable to control the jump balls that followed each foul in the last three minutes, so that their doom was really sealed when Risen made his last basket. New York was ahead, 74 to 72, when Simmons fouled out with two minutes left. Risen made the toss, then jumped against Ernie Vandeweghe and, when Rochester got possession, Arnie's hook shot put the Royals ahead, 75 to 74. Boryla tied it up a moment later but Rochester then froze the ball until Davies drove in.

Before the final minutes, the Knickerbockers' made another of their typical comebacks that marked their play all season long. The most "overtime" club in the league, they qualified for the final by coming from behind in their final game against Syracuse, and, after losing the first three to Rochester, trailed in each of the three games they won.

Tonight, trying to perform the ultimate in comebacks, they started by falling behind, 13 to 3. By the end of the first quarter they were up to 22 to 16, but a few minutes later Rochester led, 32 to 18. The Knicks battled back to within four points but trailed, 40 to 36, at halftime.

Knicks Finally Take Lead

In the third quarter they climbed to within three, then two, and were behind, 62 to 60, entering the last quarter. They finally achieved a 69-all tie midway through the period and took the lead for the first time, 71 to 70, with four minutes to go. Both times Gallatin converted under-the-basket feeds from McGuire.

McGuire added a foul half a minute later and the teams alternated free throws until Simmons fouled out against Risen. Rochester's final basket, with two seconds left, was a lay-up by Coleman after a successful freeze had settled matters.

Lou Eisenstein and Stan Stutz, the officials, charged the Knicks with thirty-two personals and the Royals with twenty-two. Splitting each team's total evenly between the two halves. Very few fouls were called against Rochester, however, in the play under the boards, where the Royals emerged with a 48-to-41 edge in rebounds. Clifton's fifth personal was particularly unfortunate for the Knicks, since it came while Rochester was holding the ball at mid-court. He was called for bumping Risen while moving into position. A minute and a half later he fouled out.

Coaches Voice No Complaints

No complaints were voiced about the officials, however, either by Knick coach, Joe Lapchick, or Rochester coach, Les Harrison, who, after Rochester's loss in New York Wednesday, found Eisenstein unsatisfactory and asked that he be replaced for tonight's game.

By their victory, the Royals earned $7,500 to add to their previous winnings and wound up with $13,250 in play-off money to divide up. The Knicks finished with $2,500 less and the satisfaction-disappointment of one of basketball's greatest near-misses.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

COMMUNITY IMPACT

The Sacramento Kings Community Impact Department and the Sacramento Kings Foundation
The Sacramento Kings are about much more than just basketball. By investing and aligning our time, resources, talent and passion, the Sacramento Kings Foundation gives our region the support they need to succeed, economically and emotionally. Because being a positive agent of change in our community is at the core of our ongoing efforts to #DoGood, impact the world and make Sacramento proud.

This season, the Sacramento Kings community efforts will continue to be disproportionately focused on three #DoGood priority areas: Health, Education and Sustainability.

2017 YEAR IN REVIEW
#DoGood Summit: The second annual Do Good Summit was hosted by the Kings Foundation for over 500 regional nonprofits to learn about the Kings Foundation, their #DoGood priorities, and opportunities to engage for the 17-18 NBA season around Health, Education and Sustainability.

Lead Inspire Flourish Thrive: The Sacramento Kings launched an organization-wide commitment to Lead, Inspire, Flourish and Thrive, LIFT, through volunteerism. Kings employees were encouraged to dedicate 50 hours of their time volunteering with various non-profits throughout the Sacramento community. Volunteer opportunities included coaching at Junior Kings Clinics, helping with Season of Doing Good events, planting trees for Arbor Day, serving food in local homeless shelters, and reading in classrooms for Read Across America Day. In honor of Cesar Chavez Day, the Community Impact Team hosted an all team-member day of service at the Youth Detention Facility where volunteers spent a full day refurbishing garden beds, leading basketball clinics, speaking on career panels, painting a Sacramento Kings mural, and hosting a basketball tournament for the residents of the facility. Overall, Kings employees gave back over 7,000 hours of volunteer time throughout the year.

Math Hoops: The Sacramento Kings, in partnership with the Sacramento Bee, will launch its 3rd season of Math Hoops to elementary, middle and after school programs in the Sacramento County. Math Hoops is a creative fun board game using current NBA players to enforce basic math skills and statistics to win. The program has grown to more than 50 classrooms and after school sites throughout Sacramento County. A Math Hoops March Madness tournament will be held with 64 teams at the Golden 1 Center later this season and Math Hoops Final Four teams and teachers will be honored at a Kings home game in celebration of their efforts and success.

Basketball Court Refreshes: Using a proven community building solution, the Kings Foundation and Kaiser Permanente refreshed the basketball courts at Madera Park in Citrus Heights and Jack Davis Park in South Sacramento. Providing updated equipment at open access community parks for more people to play basketball.

Season of Doing Good: During the holidays, the Sacramento Kings Foundation teamed up with corporate partners, players, coaches and staff to treat over 25,000 kids and families from more than 45 nonprofits organizations to a memorable holiday season. “Season of Doing Good” highlights include distributing 4,000 bicycles to youth; DeMarcus Cousins & Ty Lawson hosting a shopping sprees allowing kids to shop for themselves and their families; Matt Barnes delivering holiday meals to families in Oak Park; Willie Cauley-Stein visiting children at Kaiser hospital; and an ice skating party for local foster children.

ROOT Community Gardens: This past season, the Sacramento Kings Foundation and Raley’s announced a new partnership creating a new garden program that will serve communities stretching from the Central Valley to Northern Nevada. Through six ROOT community gardens, the Kings and Raley’s will connect young adults, families, and non-profits that assist thousands with fresh, locally sourced produce while also growing the next generation of healthy eaters.

OUR IMPACTS
During the 2016-17 season, the Sacramento Kings Foundation donated to, supported and connected with over 1,350 community based organizations through various programs. Over 800 unique items were donated to community based organizations resulting in a value of $209,500 in donated items.
The Sacramento Kings Foundation also piloted the new 50/50 Raffle Program, generating more than $292,000 in revenue – with half going to benefitting nonprofit organizations.

Board Placement: In the 2016-2017 year, 15 Sacramento Kings Executives served on various nonprofit Board of Directors to support, enhance and promote the mission and vision of the organization. Many of the nonprofit organizations' mission and vision are aligned with the Kings Executives personal and professional interests. Sharing their professional skill sets aligned with their personal interest offers the opportunity to develop stronger community involvement and partnerships through this volunteer service.

Community Ticket Program: Along with our Player Ticket Program, the Sacramento Kings supported 224 community based organizations by donating tickets to those who would never otherwise have the chance to attend a Kings game. During the 2016-2017 NBA Season, the Sacramento Kings donated more than $3 Million in ticket value to over 34,000 deserving kids and families.

Player Appearances: Sacramento Kings players play a crucial role in connecting the organization to the community. Their ability to uplift communities, motivate and inspire kids, and positively impact families is tremendous. There were dozens of memorable player events and talent appearances that occurred over the course of the season, highlighted by:

•Georgios Papagiannis speaking to students about bullying at a local elementary school

Junior Kings

Last year over 3,000 kids learned, developed and played basketball through our Junior Kings programs. Through camps, clinics and leagues children ages 6-14 developed their basketball skills, improved their physical fitness, developed self-confidence and had some fun. Using the best local and national trainers, current and former Kings fan favorites, Sacramento's youth had the opportunity to participate in year-round camps, clinics, and other special events.

The Junior Kings program aligned its programming with the Jr. NBA's mission to teach the fundamentals of basketball and use the sport to instill core character values. Highlights from last year include the Mother's Day and Father's Day Clinics where parents bonded with their children on the basketball court, a clinic for children with special needs and an all-girls clinic hosted by WNBA legend Ruthie Bolton. The Junior Kings also hosted a Legends Series over the summer which included clinics hosted by former Sacramento Kings Legends, Vlade Divac, Peja Stojakovic, Brad Miller, Doug Christie and Bobby Jackson.

Kids Club

This season, the Sacramento Kings launched a Kids Club with a free and All-Star memberships for youth 17 and under. The free Kids Club membership is a simple online sign up. The All Star Membership is $25 and includes a special Kids Club kit with a Kids Club branded lanyard, membership card, Buddy Hield growth chart, Kings branded lunch bag and a cowbell to bring to games. Signing up a youth for Kids Club will also offer the family opportunities for special announcements and access to youth programs such as Junior Kings clinics and special Kids Club promotions throughout the season.

NBA Cares

NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility program that builds on the NBA's mission of addressing important social issues. NBA Cares programs and participants have provided more than 4.1 million hours of hands-on service and created more than 1,115 places where kids and families can live, learn or play in communities around the world. The NBA also engages more than 18 million youth annually, inspiring play and teaching the values of the game. NBA Cares works with internationally recognized youth-serving programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes, including: Thurgood Marshall College Fund, Special Olympics, YMCA of the USA, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, UNICEF, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Share Our Strength and GLSEN.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

OSCAR ROBERTSON TRIPLE-DOUBLE AWARD

Inaugurated in 2003, the Oscar Robertson Triple-Double Award is presented each season to a deserving Kings player who best exemplifies winning characteristics, both as an athlete and a conscientious citizen active in the community. Deconstructed, the "triple" signifies on-court accomplishments: team leader, embodies the spirit of sportsmanship and plays an outstanding all-around game. The "double" signifies his impact off the court by demonstrating a commitment to community service and family.

Heralded as one of the finest players in NBA history, Oscar Robertson left an indelible impression on the league when he averaged a triple-double in 1961-62, posting an astounding 30.8 ppg, 12.8 rpg and 11.4 apg. The feat has not been duplicated since and remains one of the sport's most elusive statistical achievements. Robertson finished his career with 181 career triple-doubles, 41 of which he logged during the historic '61-62 campaign, each NBA records.

He is active in numerous philanthropic activities, including the International Prostate Cancer Foundation, the Boys Club of New York and the National Kidney Foundation, for whom he acts as an advocate for organ donation. Robertson and his wife Yvonne are co-chairs of the University of Cincinnati's $1 billion capital campaign and have also funded the Oscar and Yvonne Robertson Scholarship Fund at the University.

Garrett Temple Presented with the 2017 Oscar Robertson Triple-Double Award Temple Exemplifies Excellence on the Court and in the Community

The Sacramento Kings announced Garrett Temple as the recipient of the 2017 Oscar Robertson Triple-Double Award. The award, named after the NBA legend, is given each year to a player who exemplifies excellence on the court and in the community. Kings General Manager Vlade Divac and Kings Vice President of Player Personnel Peja Stojakovic presented Temple with the award on Tuesday, April 11 prior to the Kings vs. Suns game.

In his first season with the Kings, Garrett Temple personified the tenets of the Triple-Double Award. He played with passion each game and has proved to be a leader on and the court and in the locker room, always showing true sportsmanship and motiving his teammates.
Garrett is a true leader off the court too. He made a priority of giving back to the youth in our community by forming a community coalition with his teammates that provides a platform for players, youth and law enforcement to have open and honest discussions on race relations and other challenges youth face.

GOLDEN 1 CENTER

GOLDEN 1 CENTER

The critically-acclaimed, award-winning Golden 1 Center enters its second season as the home of the Sacramento Kings. In 2013, tech entrepreneur and innovator Vivek Ranadive purchased the Sacramento Kings securing the team's future in California's capital city. As part of the agreement to purchase the team, Vivek would guarantee a new NBA arena for the 2017 season. Not only did the team open a facility one year ahead of schedule, but they've also constructed the world's greenest, most advanced sports and entertainment facility in the world.

The innovations and achievement have sparked change in the sports industry and how businesses connect with their communities.

It is the first to earn a LEED Platinum rating from the United States Green Building Council. It is the first arena in the world to be 100% solar powered. Ninety percent of the arena food and beverage is sourced within 150 miles of the venue, preserving freshness and minimizing the impact on the environment by reducing vehicle miles traveled. Over 13,000 meals from unserved arena food have been redistributed through the venue's donation program, Second That.

The technology infrastructure has redefined the event experience at Golden 1 Center. It is home to the NBA's largest and only 4K Ultra HD video screen. Over 1,000 miles of cable power the most advanced network in sports. A 200-gigabit internet connection powers the venues connectivity. And a one-of-a-kind app places a "remote control" into the fans hands, providing guests with access to the arena's enhanced network with real-time information, on-demand services, even the ability to provide feedback to adjust the arena's temperature in their section.

From the beginning of the project, the venue was designed to be "bigger than basketball." The arena has transformed Sacramento into a great American city on the rise and profoundly impacted the community. Over 4,000 permanent jobs were created and the venue sits in the center of an energized downtown with $4 billion invested into redefining the city. Golden 1 Center is home to $10 million in public-art including the only publicly-owned, permanently-displayed work by 21st Century icon Jeff Koons. In its first year of operation, the arena has changed the city's culture and entertainment calendar with Over 200 community event and world-class performers including Lady Gaga, Paul McCartney, Bruno Mars, Mana, Ed Sheeran, and Eric Church.

For all its innovations, it has earned the 2017 Sports Business Journal Facility of the Year award and over 20 other awards and accolades highlighting its beautiful design, technological advancements, environmental innovations, and premium accommodations.

DOWNTOWN COMMONS (DOCO)

Golden 1 Center sits at the center of Downtown Commons (DOCO) – Sacramento's emerging lifestyle and entertainment district. Developed by the Sacramento Kings, the $1 billion investment to enhance Sacramento's downtown features 1.8 million square feet of the region's best retail, dining, a boutique hotel and entertainment options. Public art sprinkles the 3 acre plaza which wraps the arena and extends through the lobby of the hotel.

The Sawyer, a one-of-one hotel managed by Kimpton, brings guests into the heart of the city's entertainment district. It overlooks Golden 1 Center, while embracing the region's affinity for nature and the outdoors through spaces that feature organic textures, natural patterns, and abundant open-air areas with views to the Sierras, the State Capitol and one of Sacramento's iconic bridges. Go no further than the third floor Bar & Lounge, perched above the plaza, to experience locally inspired food, craft cocktails + beer, and local wines. The hotel is now open and available for booking.

At the top of the hotel sit 45 luxury residences that have sparked a renaissance in Sacramento's real estate market. The Residences at the Sawyer are Sacramento's first fully-amenitized luxury condominiums featuring a private residents' lounge, outdoor pool and lounge, fitness center, 24-hour concierge, residential doorman, valet and à la carte hotel services.

JERRY REYNOLDS

Jerry Reynolds returns as a color analyst for the club's televised contests for the Kings Broadcast Network. The 2017-18 season marks his 33rd with the franchise, a tenure distinguished by a multitude of roles. In addition to serving as the Kings head coach for nearly four seasons (1987-90) and Kings director of player personnel from 1994-2013, Reynolds also acted as Sacramento Monarchs General Manager for six campaigns (1998-2003), leading the club to the league playoffs four times.

Reynolds was also a member of the USA Basketball Women's Senior National Team Committee for the 2001-04 quadrennium, where he helped select the coaching staff and players of the Olympic gold medal-winning USA Senior National Teams.

A native of French Lick, Indiana (where he is often referred to as the second most popular local, first being NBA Hall of Famer Larry Bird), Reynolds has a unique understanding of the interaction among players, coaches and the front office due in part to his experience gained through his varied roles with the Kings organization. He originally joined the club in 1985 as an assistant coach responsible for advance pro and college scouting.

On two occasions Reynolds served as the Kings' head coach following midseason changes. In 1987, he was named, on an interim basis, to replace former Head Coach Phil Johnson. The following year he took over for Bill Russell with 24 games remaining and stayed on as the club's head coach for the next two seasons. All told, Reynolds served as head coach of the Kings for a portion of four seasons (1987-1990). He also served as the director of player personnel for two seasons (1990-92) before accepting the role as the club's general manager (5/92-12/93). As the club's director of player personnel, he was responsible for keeping abreast of both the professional and collegiate talent pools available to the Kings, while also helping to oversee the club's scouting efforts.

An extremely popular figure with both the Sacramento community and the national media, Reynolds is an often-requested favorite on the public speaking circuit. A graduate of Oakland City University (Indiana) in 1966, he received his master's degree in physical education from Indiana State University in 1970.

Reynolds and his wife, Dodie, reside in Roseville and have a daughter, Danielle, a graduate of Santa Monica College and son, Jay, a 1992 graduate of Sacramento State University.

DID YOU KNOW ... Jerry Reynolds and Don Drysdale, who covered the Kings from 1985 to 1994 for the Sacramento Union, collaborated to write Reynolds Remembers, a 192-page book that covers the Kings through the eyes of Reynolds.
